FROM THE PRESIDENT

September 2019

WE'RE MOVING!

So, I was going to make a list of items to put into this newsletter but needed to check this and that. Oops – this is packed and so is that. We will be so glad when this move is finally made [Wednesday, August 28] and everything unpacked and settled!! I just know I am keeping and moving too many things. The rest of our downsizing is going to Klass A Auctions in the city – no garage sales [breathe a sigh of relief]. The auction will take place at the end of September or early October.

I am sorry that we had to cancel the Sons of Norway table at Folkfest this year. I hear the Norwegian pavilion was quite successful and I really missed the annual visits with people you only see at Folkfest or new people who stop to tell us that they have some Norwegian in their background or just to say hi to friends and acquaintances. Thanks to all of our members who volunteered at the pavilion. Our volunteer base is getting thinner every year so we need to find some “new” Norwegian volunteers or even some Norwegian wantabees!!

September marks the start of our fall/winter programming after a summer of drought in some areas and of violent storms around the province that caused millions of dollars of damage to homes, businesses, crops, etc. Hopefully we will be recharged with energy and interest to participate in the programs that we have planned. The first meeting of note is for the Board of Directors on Thursday, Sept 12 at 7:30 pm in Legion Manor.

Secondly, the September Lodge meeting is Thursday, September 19. This is our annual special birthday and anniversary celebration and general meeting – hosted by Group 1. We had talked about starting with a soup/bun supper with the celebration cake for dessert but that decision will be up to Group 1. Just in case, plan on a 6:00 pm start time and we'll phone everyone with confirmation.

October is Foundation Month – the time of year to make your annual donation to the foundation. The Board meets on October 10 at 7:30 pm Legion Manor.

Plan to attend the social/cultural event on October 17 with Group 2 hosting. We'll start with a supper of Smørbrød [make your own open face sandwiches] at 6:00 pm.

This will be followed by an ART evening led by artists Doreen Uhl and Marilyn Bonstrom. We'll be learning how to be an “artist” and create our own painting! It should be very entertaining to see the end results!

NOVEMBER

Just as a reminder the meeting is on the 21st starting with a supper and hosted by Group 1. More information will be in a later newsletter. Lastly, we are hoping to coordinate the annual Lutefisk and Meatball Supper with the Saskatoon Norwegian Cultural Society on Sunday, December 1.

If you have an idea for a program for the lodge, send it to me or talk to a Board member [Marcel, Sharon, Myrna, Phyllis, Kathy, Diane]. Planning the programs for the whole year seemed to work very well in 2019 so we will go through that process again in January 2020.

Looking ahead to 2020 Valhalla Lodge in Calgary will be hosting the Sports Weekend. It will be the last weekend in May and located in High River. We will be receiving more information in the new year.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the September meeting. Remember if you need a ride to contact me so that we can arrange car pools.

Diane Berg

Special Birthday and Annivesary Celebration

Fra redaktøren

Kjære venner,

Summer is almost over and fall is on the way. I hope that each of you had a great summer. For me, summer seemed to go by too quickly (again!), and fall looks to be just as busy. I think I had better begin preparing for winter because it will be here before I am ready for it.

We will celebrate any special birthdays and anniversaries at our September meeting, and Foundation Month at our October meeting. I hope each of you can make it to these meetings. I will turn 60 this year which is still young at our Lodge but it is a milestone for me.

Litt på norsk...

Oslo elsker pølser

For nordmenn flest er ingen fotballkamp eller nasjonaldag komplett uten et par wienerpølser i lompe med ketsjup, sennep og sprøstekt løk.

Det er vanligst å servere pølsa i lompe; et flatt, mykt bakverk lagd av poteter. For seg selv er lompa litt tørr, men sammen med pølsa utgjør de en perfekt smakscombinasjon.

Også pøsekiosken har en rik tradisjon i Oslo. Det var stedet du kunne stikke innom etter jobb eller på vei til/ra fest for å få deg et klassisk mellommåltid.

Før i tiden kunne det virke som det lå en pøsekiosk på hvert gatehjørne, men i dag er det svært få igjen av de små bodene som pleide å definere bybildet. Etter hvert ble det vanskeligere og vanskeligere å hamle opp med større kjedekiosker med sine bredere tilbud og lengre åpningstider, og de aller fleste måtte stenge.

Elsket av The Guardian

Men noen har holdt stand, og Erlend Dahlbo og hans Syverkiosken på Alexander Kiellands plass er en av dem. Syverkiosken har blitt et symbol på det gamle Oslo.

Syverkiosken er et populært destinasjonssted for sultne folk gjennom hele dagen. I fjor ble kiosken nevnt i den britiske avisen The Guardian, som beskrev pølsene som "at once comforting yet also deliciously spiced".

Det var faren hans som lærte Erlend alt han kunne om å lage den perfekte wieneren. Trikset? En hemmelig kraft som kokes opp før pølsene legges oppi. Han nekter spøkefullt å røpe hva suksessoppskriften består av. Noen hemmeligheter må man få ha.

Uansett hva du liker å ha på: sennep, ketsjup, sprøstekt løk, dressing, bacon, agurk-mix, vær trygg på at det finnes en pølse for deg!

and a little in English

Oslo Loves Hot Dogs

For Norwegians, no soccer game or national holiday is complete without a couple of hot dogs in lompe with ketchup, mustard and crispy onions.

It is most common to serve hot dogs in lompe: a flat, soft pastry made from potatoes. On its own it is a little dry, but together with the hot dog they make a perfect flavor combination. The hot dog stand also has a rich tradition in Oslo. It was the place you stopped to pick up a classic snack after work or on the way to or from a party.

In the old days, it seemed like there was a hot dog stand on every corner, but today there are very few left of the small booths that used to define the cityscape. Eventually, it became difficult and harder to compete with larger chain stores, with their wider offerings and longer opening hours, and most had to close.

Loved by The Guardian

But some have held their ground, and Erlend Dahlbo and his Syverkiosk on Alexander Kielland's Square is one of them. Syverkiosken has become a symbol of old Oslo.

Syverkiosken is a popular destination for hungry people throughout the day. Last year, the kiosk was mentioned in the British newspaper The Guardian, which described the hot dogs as "at once comforting yet also deliciously spiced."

It was his father who taught Erlend everything he knew to make the perfect hot dog. The trick? A secret broth that is boiled before the hot dogs are added. He jokingly refuses to reveal what the successful recipe consists of. Some secrets must be kept.

Whatever toppings you prefer: mustard, ketchup, crispy onions, dressing, bacon, relish, be assured that there is a hot dog for you!
